

2009 Asian Pacific Islander
Heritage Month Celebration

art competition

Help celebrate Asian Pacific Islander (API) Heritage Month
this May 2009, and enter an original art piece that showcases API Heritage and culture in America.

REQUIREMENTS

The contest is open to all students. Artworks must be original and made specifically for this contest. Approximate size is 8" by 15". Mount on middle weight standard art board with 2" border. Attach a card in the lower left hand corner that has the title of the piece, your name, grade and school. Complete release form and turn it in with your art work. Only one art piece per person can be submitted.

JUDGING

A panel of professional artists and art professionals will judge the artwork.

AWARD

The top art pieces by grade level will be displayed at the API Heritage Month Celebration on Sunday, May 3, 2009 from 12 PM to 5 PM at the Seattle Center House. All winners will be introduced on stage. The first place winners will have their art pieces printed in the International Examiner and displayed during the first two weeks of May at the Wing Luke Asian Museum. A special prize will be given to each winner. All other winners will be on display at the Bellevue Branch of City University.

DEADLINE

All artworks must be brought to Center for Career Alternatives, 901 Rainier Avenue So., Seattle, WA 98144 by 5:00PM on April 22, 2009. Artworks can be picked up at the conclusion of the API Heritage Month Celebration at the end of May. In the past, City University had purchased three of the art pieces to be permanently displayed at their university.
